WOTM Column

Welcome fall. It has been a long summer and as many outdoor actives come to a close there are so many things happening through the doors at the moose.

First, thank you everyone who made it to the state convention. It was a lot of fun and we learned some great things that are coming up. We sure did send Sandy Schanding out with a bang. We also want to welcome newly appointed Deputy Grand Regent Judy Hampton. We also want to congratulate the homecoming dance king and queen Ron Wilson and Sandy Schanding!! On October 13th, we will be having our Bluegrass band in the back hall. Doors open at 8 and ends at 11pm. This event is open to the public so gather your friends and come enjoy some live music and support the WOTM. On October 14th, we will be hosting the Youth Awareness event. This is open to all children grades 9 to 12. This is for any child who wants to earn a scholarship whether moose members or not. A parent or grandparent must be present with child. This is being put on by Judy Hampton Deputy Grand Regent. Women's meetings are held the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of every month in the back hall at 7pm. Please join us to learn what is upcoming here at the Moose. I want to say thank you to everyone who helped make the convention run so smooth. Thank you women you did such a wonderful job. It makes me happy that we have such a great team of women . Congrats to co worker of the month Sandy Schanding for all her hard work at convention. Still need volunteers for Tuesday night dinners and for dessert for steak dinner nights.**
